

The first-ever Textbook Archives in the country was inaugurated by the Hon'ble Minister for Education & Culture, Govt of Kerala on 16 February 2011 at SCERT. The oldest textbook in the present collection dates back to 1896 and there are 1200 textbooks, mainly from Kerala. There is an Advisory Committee headed by Sri N Sukumaran Nair, Former State Librarian and its members are drawn from different fields like Archives. 44 very old textbooks have been digitized and it is hoped that this will grow in stature in the years to come.
